MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C § 3583(d)

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: three years on each of counts One through Eight, with said terms to run concurrently. The Court waives the costs associated with supervision.

The defendant must report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. The court imposes those conditions identified by checkmarks below:

The defendant shall, during the period of supervised release:

- (1) not commit another Federal, State, or local crime.
- (2) not use or possess an illegal drug.
- (3) attend a public, private, or private nonprofit offender rehabilitation program that has been approved by the court, if an approved program is readily available within a 50-mile radius of the legal residence of the defendant. [Use for a first conviction of a domestic violence crime, as defined in § 3561(b).]
- (4) register and comply with all requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16913).
- (5) cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample, if directed to do so by a probation officer.
- (6) refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance AND submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervised release and at least two periodic tests thereafter, up to 104 periodic tests for use of a controlled substance during each year of supervised release. [This mandatory condition may be ameliorated or suspended by the court for any defendant if reliable sentencing information indicates a low risk of future substance abuse by the defendant.]

DISCRETIONARY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C § 3563(b) AND 18 U.S.C § 3583(d)

Discretionary Conditions — The court orders that the defendant abide by the following conditions during the term of supervised release because such conditions are reasonably related to the factors set forth in § 3553(a)(1) and (a)(2)(B), (C), and (D); such conditions involve only such deprivations of liberty or property as are reasonably necessary for the purposes indicated in § 3553 (a)(2) (B), (C), and (D); and such conditions are consistent with any pertinent policy statement issued by the Sentencing Commission pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994a. The court imposes those conditions identified by checkmarks below:

The defendant shall, during the period of supervised release:

- (1) provide financial support to dependents if financially able.
- (2) make restitution under a schedule determined by the probation officer in light of an assessment of the defendant's ability to pay. Defendant shall notify the court of any material change in economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay restitution.
- (3) give to the victims of the offense notice pursuant to the provisions of § 3555, as follows: [REDACTED]
- (4) seek lawful employment.
- (5) refrain from engaging in a specified occupation, business, or profession bearing a reasonably direct relationship to the conduct constituting the offense, or engage in such a specified occupation, business, or profession only to a stated degree or under stated circumstances; (if checked yes, please indicate restriction(s) [REDACTED].)
- (6) refrain from knowingly meeting or communicating with any person whom the defendant knows to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity and from:
 - visiting the following type of places: [REDACTED].
 - knowingly meeting or communicating with the following persons: [REDACTED].
- (7) refrain from excessive use of alcohol (defined as having a blood alcohol concentration greater than 0.08%), or any use of a narcotic drug or other controlled substance, as defined in § 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 802), without a prescription by a licensed medical practitioner.
- (8) refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
- (9) participate, at the direction of a probation officer, in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include urine testing up to a maximum of 104 tests per year.
 - participate, at the direction of a probation officer, in a mental health treatment program, which may include the use of prescription medications.
 - participate, at the direction of a probation officer, in medical care; (if checked yes, please specify: [REDACTED].) (intermittent confinement): remain in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons during nights, weekends, or other intervals of time, totaling [REDACTED] [no more than the lesser of one year or the term of imprisonment authorized for the offense], during the first year of the term of supervised release (provided, however, that a condition set forth in § 3563(b)(10) shall be imposed only for a violation of a condition of supervised release in accordance with § 3583(e)(2) and only when facilities are available) for the following period [REDACTED].

(11) (community confinement): reside at, or participate in the program of a community corrections facility (including a facility maintained or under contract to the Bureau of Prisons) for all or part of the term of supervised release, for a period of [REDACTED] months.

(12) work in community service for [REDACTED] hours as directed by a probation officer.

(13) reside in the following place or area: [REDACTED], or refrain from residing in a specified place or area: [REDACTED].

(14) notify and obtain permission from the probation officer if defendant leaves the Northern District of Illinois for more than seven days. The probation officer will give the defendant a map showing the defendant the boundaries of the Northern District of Illinois.

(home confinement): remain at defendant's place of residence for a total of [REDACTED] months during nonworking hours. [This condition may be imposed only as an alternative to incarceration.]

Compliance with this condition shall be monitored by telephonic or electronic signaling devices (the selection of which shall be determined by a probation officer). Electronic monitoring shall ordinarily be used in connection with home detention as it provides continuous monitoring of the defendant's whereabouts. Voice identification may be used in lieu of electronic monitoring to monitor home confinement and provides for random monitoring of the defendant's whereabouts. If the defendant is unable to wear an electronic monitoring device due to health or medical reasons, it is recommended that home confinement with voice identification be ordered, which will provide for random checks on the defendant's whereabouts. Home detention with electronic monitoring or voice identification is not deemed appropriate and cannot be effectively administered in cases in which the offender has no bona fide residence, has a history of violent behavior, serious mental health problems, or substance abuse; has pending criminal charges elsewhere; requires frequent travel inside or outside the district; or is required to work more than 60 hours per week.

The defendant shall pay the cost of electronic monitoring or voice identification at the daily contractual rate, if the defendant is financially able to do so.

The Court waives the electronic/location monitoring component of this condition.

(20) comply with the terms of any court order or order of an administrative process pursuant to the law of a State, the District of Columbia, or any other possession or territory of the United States, requiring payments by the defendant for the support and maintenance of a child or of a child and the parent with whom the child is living.

(21) be surrendered to a duly authorized official of the Homeland Security Department for a determination on the issue of deportability by the appropriate authority in accordance with the laws under the Immigration and Nationality Act and the established implementing regulations. If ordered deported, the defendant shall not reenter the United States without obtaining, in advance, the express written consent of the Attorney General or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security.

(22) satisfy such other special conditions as ordered below.

(23) (if required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act) submit at any time, with or without a warrant, to a search of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, by any law enforcement or probation officer having reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions (see special conditions section).

(24) Other:

(10) participate in a sex offender treatment program. The specific program and provider will be determined by a probation officer. The defendant shall comply with all recommended treatment which may include psychological and physiological testing. The defendant shall maintain use of all prescribed medications.

(11) The defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program as administered by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall consent to the installation of computer monitoring software on all identified computers to which the defendant has access. The software may restrict and/or record any and all activity on the computer, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, Internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. A notice will be placed on the computer at the time of installation to warn others of the existence of the monitoring software. (16) The defendant shall not, without the approval of a probation officer and treatment provider, engage in activities that will put him or her in unsupervised private contact with any person under the age of 18, or visit locations where children regularly congregate (e.g., locations specified in the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act.)

(17) This condition does not apply to the defendant's family members: [redacted] [Names]

(18) The defendant's employment shall be restricted to the district and division where he resides or is supervised, unless approval is granted by a probation officer. Prior to accepting any form of employment, the defendant shall seek the approval of a probation officer, in order to allow the probation officer the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community the defendant will pose if employed in a particular capacity. The defendant shall not participate in any volunteer activity that may cause the defendant to come into direct contact with children except under circumstances approved in advance by a probation officer and treatment provider.

(19) The defendant shall provide the probation officer with copies of the defendant's telephone bills, all credit card statements/receipts, and any other financial information requested.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)
v.) 14 CR 447
HAKEEM EL BEY) Judge Richard A. Posner

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

The United States asks me to issue a preliminary order of forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C), 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2.

On August 13, 2014, an indictment was returned charging the defendant with mail fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341, among other offenses. The indictment sought forfeiture to the United States of property that constituted or was derived from proceeds traceable to the charged offenses.

The defendant was tried before a jury that on March 4, 2015 returned a verdict of guilty on all counts of the indictment, thereby making certain property named in the indictment subject to forfeiture pursuant to the statutes cited above. Also on March 4 the jury returned a special forfeiture verdict finding that the following property constitutes or was derived from proceeds traceable to the mail fraud offenses of conviction and was therefore subject to forfeiture:

1. One Quicksilver 2010 Buick LaCrosse 4-Door Sedan, VIN: 1G4GC5EG8AF300937;
2. Real Property Located at 439 South Hoxie, Calumet City, Illinois, legally described as follows:

LOT 34 IN BLOCK 1 IN CALUMET CITY SUBDIVISION BEING A SUBDIVISION OF THE SOUTHEAST $\frac{1}{4}$ OF THE NORTHEAST $\frac{1}{4}$
OF SECTION 12, TOWNSHIP 36 NORTH, RANGE 14, EAST OF THE THIRD PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN, IN COOK COUNTY, ILLI-NOIS.

PIN: 29-12-231-004

Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(2) states that following a finding that property is subject to forfeiture the court should enter a preliminary order of forfeiture setting forth the amount of any money judgment, directing the forfeiture of specific property, and directing forfeiture of any substitute property if the government has met the criteria in 21 U.S.C. § 853(p).

The United States has asked me enter a money judgment against the defendant for $600,000. This amount reflects the total proceeds traceable to the mail fraud offenses of conviction. The United States also asks me to enter an order of forfeiture against the defendant with respect to the specific property that the jury determined is subject to forfeiture. That property is to be forfeited in partial satisfaction of the money judgment.

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(m), (n) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3), the entry of a preliminary order of forfeiture authorizes the Attorney General (or a designee) to seize the property subject to forfeiture; to conduct any discovery that the court considers proper in identifying, locating, or disposing of the property; and to begin any proceedings necessary to comply with any statutes governing third-party rights in seized property. Pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(6), the government must publish notice of the preliminary order of forfeiture and mail notice to any person who reasonably appears to be a potential claimant to the property, or part of it, who has standing to contest the forfeiture. The government advises me that it has conducted searches of the Cook County Recorder of Deeds, the Cook County Treasurer, the Illinois Secretary of State, and law enforcement databases, and has discovered no third party who has an interest in any of the property subject to forfeiture.

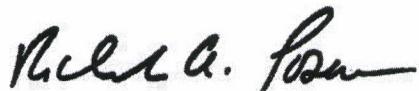

Accordingly, I order that a judgment be entered against the defendant for $600,000. If by an act or omission on his part funds in the amount of $600,000 can't be located to satisfy the money judgment, then pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(p) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), the United States shall be authorized to forfeit substitute assets of the defendant. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C), 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), and Fed. R. Civ. P. 32.2, all right, title, and interest of the defendant in the personal and real property named in the third paragraph of this order shall be forfeited to the United States for disposition according to law, in partial satisfaction of the money judgment. Should further assets become available to satisfy the forfeiture judgment in the future, the United States shall file a motion requesting permission to seize such assets and publish notice of the intent of the United States to forfeit them in satisfaction of the forfeiture money judgment.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C), 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2, the United States requests that the terms and conditions of this preliminary order of forfeiture be made part of the sentence imposed against the defendant and recited in any judgment and commitment order entered in this case. In accordance with Rule 32.2(b)(4)(A), at sentencing—or at any time before sentencing if the defendant consents—the preliminary order of forfeiture, including the money judgment, will become final as to the defendant. And pursuant to rule 32.2(c), if a third party files a petition asserting an interest in the property to be forfeited I must hold a hearing to determine his rights. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2), third parties have thirty days from the publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, to file a petition. The preliminary order of forfeiture will remain preliminary as to third parties until such an ancillary proceeding, if required, can be conducted under Rule 32.2(c). After disposition of all third party interests, I shall, upon the government's motion if appropriate, enter a final order of forfeiture of the property that is the subject of this preliminary order of forfeiture, thereby vesting clear title in the United States of America.

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(g), as incorporated by 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c), and Fed. R. Civ. P. 32.2, the personal and real property named in the third paragraph of this order shall upon entry of this preliminary order of forfeiture be seized by the United States Treasury.

I shall retain jurisdiction to take such additional action and enter such further orders as may be necessary to implement and enforce this preliminary forfeiture order.

Circuit Judge RICHARD A. POSNER
Sitting in the United States District Court by designation.
